

Graduates of the Montessori Stoppani Institute may pursue careers in various roles related to education and child development. Below is a list of potential career/job opportunities that align with the skills and knowledge gained from this program:

- Lead Teacher/Guide at a Montessori School
- Classroom Assistant
- Nanny or In-Home Child Care Professional
- Parenting Coach/Family Consultant
- Consultant for Montessori School Start-Ups
- Montessori Materials Designer/Creator
- Montessori-Based Toy or Material Developer
- School Administrator
- Designer of Educational Montessori Spaces (classrooms or homes)
- Private Tutor
- Workshop Leader
- Director of a Montessori Program
- Educational Podcaster (Montessori-focused)
- Child Care Provider (before or after school programs)
- Author of Montessori Guides, Articles, or Books
- Parent Educator/Workshop Facilitator
- Independent Educational Contractor
- Montessori Blogger or Content Creator
- Speaker at Parenting and Educational Conferences
- Support Staff in Educational Settings
- Montessori Social Media Manager/Influencer
- Owner/Administrator of a Montessori School